

Inviting your organizations and/or networks to #RxVote with you:

Dear _____:

I am writing to you about a critical issue that impacts our patients. The November 2022 elections are an important opportunity to vote for leaders who will protect the health of our patients and the overall vitality of our communities.

As a [insert role], I believe that the outcomes of elections have a tremendous impact on the health of our patients and our communities. Therefore, I am supporting the efforts of a non-partisan movement, Civic Health Alliance (<https://www.civichealthalliance.org>), to get out the vote and to do so safely.

I would like our organization to support these efforts because [insert reasons why you personally believe this is important].

Here are a few ways that we, as an organization, can help to get out the vote in 2022. [insert suggested actions]

Can we count on your leadership and support?

Inviting your colleagues and/or networks to #RxVote with you:

Dear _____:

I write today to invite you to join me and the Civic Health Alliance in getting out the vote. As a [insert role], I am concerned about the ability of our staff and the communities we serve to vote - and vote safely - this November.

As a [insert role] and an American, I believe that the outcomes of elections have a tremendous impact on our collective health, no matter the party in power.

As a colleague and a concerned citizen, I support the non-partisan movement Civic Health

Alliance (<https://www.civichealthalliance.org>) - whose efforts solely center on the right to vote - and vote safely - in November. I am excited to discuss the movement, and the work ahead, with you.
